To serve humanity by imparting knowledge of Qur'an and Sunnah - the only way to attain peace in this world and the hereafter

Praise & Gratitude

الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ الَّذِي لَهُ الْحَمْدُ فِي الْأُولَى وَالْآخِرَةِ، ذِي
الْآلَاءِ الْبَاطِنَةِ وَالظَّاهِرَةِ، أَحْمَدُهُ حَمْدَ مُسْتَزِيدٍ
لِيَأْجُرَهُ، وَأَسْتَغْفِرُهُ مِنْ ذُنُوبٍ آتِيَةٍ وَغَابِرَةٍ.

All praise belongs to Allah, the One who alone is worthy of all praise in this world and the Hereafter, the Bestower of blessings, both hidden and manifest. I praise Him with a heart that longs for every opportunity to praise Him, hoping thereby to attain His reward and nearness. And I seek His forgiveness for my sins, those of the past and those yet to come.

The Path to Eternal Success

Human beings were not sent into this world merely to live a brief life. Our creation serves a greater purpose. Our existence began not just with the body but with the creation of the soul, and we were sent to this world so that through trials, we may be trained and prepared for the ultimate destination: the everlasting life of the Hereafter. Today, people have come to regard this world as if it were everything. Children, livelihood, relationships, financial circumstances, illness, and worries about the future are all important aspects of life, but they are not its ultimate purpose. When people become deeply entangled in worldly concerns and forget the Hereafter, they lose sight of their true journey and the purpose for which they were created.

This world is essentially a testing ground. Prosperity is a test, and hardship is a test. Blessings are a trial, just as calamities are a trial. Allah trains His servants by taking them through different circumstances, elevates their ranks, forgives their sins, and draws them closer to Himself. The truly successful people are those who remain connected to their Lord in every situation.

We must renew our conviction that true success is not measured by worldly or superficial achievements, but by earning the pleasure of Allah. True happiness does not lie in wealth or material comforts, but in the peace that comes from faith in Allah, trust in Him, patience, and steadfastness. We should strengthen our bond with our Lord, rise above the temporary entanglements of this world, keep our ultimate destination in mind, and illuminate for future generations the path of faith, good character, righteous upbringing, and recognition of Allah.

May Allah grant us His true recognition and steadfastness, beautify our worldly life and Hereafter, and include us among those fortunate souls whom the angels greet with glad tidings of Paradise at the time of death. Ameen.

Editor's Note

We present the new issue of the Al-Huda Newsletter. We were blessed to experience two great faith-filled occasions during its preparation: Eid al-Fitr and Eid al-Adha. Throughout these blessed occasions, every department of Al-Huda continued its activities with great enthusiasm. Teachers and students alike, alongside their worship, remained committed to spreading goodness and conveying the message of the Quran to as many people as possible. Ustazah Dr. Farhat Hashmi launched a deeply impactful educational program titled Al-Quran Rabi'i Qalbi (The Quran is the Spring of My Heart) on January 1 in Multan, in preparation for Ramadan. The program continued until March 8. During this period, she also visited various cities in the Multan region, delivering faith-inspiring lectures to people from all walks of life, from which a large number of people benefited. People greatly appreciated Al-Huda's efforts and expressed a desire to further their Quranic education, which is an encouraging and promising development.

We acknowledge the tireless hard work and efforts of our students and staff, and are deeply grateful for the support of all our well-wishers in keeping Al-Huda's mission on the path of success.

Ustazah Dr. Farhat Hashmi's Visit to Multan

The arrival of Ustazah in Multan was the fulfillment of a long-held dream for the people of the region. It was not merely a program, but a great blessing and special favor from Allah. This time, a Quran study program was organized under the title Al-Quran Rabi'i Qalbi, benefiting not only local female students and women but also thousands of people around the world. The program was also offered as a registered course through the Al-Huda e-Learning Platform, through which 3,557 individuals benefited.

Additionally, open lectures were arranged at various marketplaces in Multan city. Thousands of women attended these sessions, and many subsequently enrolled in regular classes and connected their daughters and family members with the institution.

Ustazah taught the book The Prophetic Method of Correcting Mistakes every Monday and held a Fiqh al-Quloob (Jurisprudence of the Hearts) class every Friday. Every Sunday, she would visit a different city in the Multan region with the Al-Huda team, delivering lectures to women on various topics. These cities included Muzaffargarh, Chishtian, Hasilpur, Dera Ghazi Khan, Bahawalpur, Vehari, Alipur/Jatoi, and Khanewal. Large numbers of women attended these lectures.

Staff members from various Al-Huda regions also continued to visit, and this spiritually uplifting atmosphere was maintained until the end of Ramadan. May Allah make the effects of this blessed visit long-lasting, spread the light, blessings, and guidance of the Quran and Sunnah in every city and every home, and grant us all the ability to continue this mission with sincerity and steadfastness. Ameen.

Regional Coordinator Multan, Alia Nizami

The most distinctive feature of this course was that Ustazah did not merely impart knowledge but nurtured hearts.

"Al-Quran Rabi'i Qalbi" proved to be not an ordinary educational program but a spiritual journey that brought hearts closer to the Quran, lives closer to obedience to Allah, and practically invited people to color their character in the hues of the Quran.

Ali Pur/Jatooi

The Quran truly nourishes the heart. It breathes life into the dry and weary parts of the heart, makes a person aware of their sins and shows them the path to repentance.

It humbles a person and teaches them to bow before their Lord. This divine guidance cures the heart, awakens the soul and leads a person back to their Lord.

Aqeeqah

A Beautiful Sunnah of Gratitude

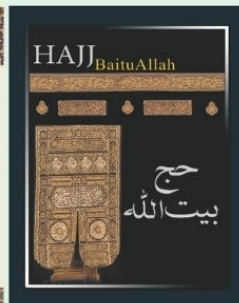

Children are among the greatest blessings bestowed by Allah. Such a blessing calls for gratitude, and one of the Sunnah (prophetic tradition) practices of expressing gratitude for a child is to perform Aqeeqah on their behalf. To seek blessings, protection, and goodness for your child, arrange their Aqeeqah.

Al-Huda Publications has published a concise pamphlet containing authentic guidance and information about Aqeeqah. Read it yourself and share it with your family, relatives, and friends so that others may also benefit.

Moreover, if a person's parents were unable to perform their Aqeeqah during childhood due to a lack of knowledge, they may now perform their own Aqeeqah themselves.
