Salah is a Feast

It is from the Special Rahmah and Ihsan of Allah that He has invited His servants to a feast through Salah comprising of various kinds of delicacies, nourishments, gifts and grants. He has honored and dignified His servants by inviting them five times a day.

- There are two benefits and blessings which the servant receives while performing Salah, which is not available through any other means of worship.
- Salah is not only a means of expiation from sins but also a means of light and spiritual nourishment that which gives strength through which leaving sins become easier.
- Salah prevents from immodesty and enhances personal growth, the person comes in the protection of Allah Jundub bin Abdullah رضي الله عنه narrates, Prophet ﷺ said, "Whoever prays Fajr comes under the responsibility of Allah". (Sahih Muslim: 1439)
- Salah increases the share of one's provision, gives relief from fear and sorrow, navigates in trials and gives cure from illness. Allama Ibn al Qayyim رحمته الله says, "Many a person has been cured from illnesses through Zikr of Allah and leaping towards the Salah.
- Allah honors the one who is present for Salah, gives rewards for each step and raises his rank.
- Preparations are made for him in Jannah, thus the person returns from Salah as if Allah has quenched his thirst. Before his heart was deprived of rain and was experiencing drought, thirst, hunger and nakedness. After performing Salah Allah returns him with riches through gifts which make the servant unconcerned of his needs being fulfilled through others, sins are forgiven, he becomes fresh and vigorous and returns with the duas of Angels.

▪ Hayya 'Alal Falah Course

In Al-Huda Canada, Dr. Farhat Hashmi highlighted the spiritual side of Salah by conducting a course in Salah from the Book "As Salah min kalam Ibn al Qayyim" from 14th July to 19th August. Apart from Al-Huda Staff and Students, a large audience benefitted from this course via online facility.

My journey through Hayya 'Alal Falah Course

This course ended in the blessed ten days of Zhul Hijjah and I renewed my intention that the Salah become coolness of my eyes like it was for my Prophet ﷺ. Allama Ibn al Qayyim رحمه الله has highlighted in detail the spiritual side of Salah by the parable of feast, fertile land, quenching of thirst, which gave a new dimension to my thoughts. Now I consider Salah as a means of conversing with my Rabb and try my best to pray at its earliest time. Each and every act of Salah has become a means of my spiritual growth. Now I am convinced that Salah is the means of achieving ultimate success. I am teaching this book to my Husband and my mother. I now really value and appreciate it in real sense, this unique gift given in Mai'raj.

Envy...a Bad Moral Quality

Allah has said, "Or do they envy people for what Allah has given them of His bounty? But We had already given the family of Abraham the Scripture and Wisdom and conferred upon them a great Kingdom".

(An Nisa': 54)

In the Qur'an, a dua has been taught for the protection from the evil of the envier. Allah has said, "And from the evil of an envier when he envies".

(Al Falaq: 5)

In the Ahadeeth this evil act has been condemned, Abu Huraira رضي الله عنه narrates, Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "...Iman and envy cannot be combined in a person's heart".

(Sunan An Nasai: 3111)

Abdullah Bin Umar رضي الله عنه narrates, Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم was asked, who is the most excellent among the people? He replied, "Every pure hearted, truthful one". People said we can recognize the truthful one but who is the one with pure heart? He صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "The one who is Allah conscious, who is pure, whose heart neither has sins nor rebelliousness, nor animosity or envy."

(Ibn Majah: 4216)

Abu Hurairah رضي الله عنه narrates, Prophet صلى الله عليه وسلم said, "Safeguard yourself from envy because envy consumes good deeds as fire consumes wood".

(Sunan Abi Dawud: 4903)

Thus, it is important for us to safeguard our good deeds, instead of whining about the blessings of others. We should recognize the blessings which we are availing and be grateful to Allah and use the blessings in the best possible way. We should protect the heart from the impurity of this sin and direct all the energy in positive and constructive tasks to earn success in this world and the Hereafter. May Allah protect us from this disgraceful moral character and make us among His grateful servants. Ameen.

Book Review

I went to the bookstore in Canada and a small book with an unusual title caught my eye. The name of the book was 'Nani Amma' and there was a picture of lush green tree with sky blue background. I picked up the book and started reading it, I totally forgot that what I had come to pick from the book store. This book is based on the life of Razia Begam, the mother of Dr. Farhat Hashmi. She was an impressive person, who would organize her daily routine and she did this remarkably well from a very young age. We cannot find such examples easily now. Patience, persistence, hard work, empathy, gratitude, helping people, sacrifice, and other qualities which we would like to see in our self were a part of her personality. She is an excellent role model to learn good character building or to acquire the stature of wisdom. As a woman in any role or relation you should surely read this book. You can see yourself in that perspective and differentiate between your dealings and hers and come up with excellent life lessons. Read this book yourself and share with those who cannot read urdu. It has ideal lesson even for young girls.

Book Reading Habit

In order to inculcate book reading habit in the students of Al-Huda Islamabad and to avail from its benefits the students of Taleem ul Qur'an - 2 were asked to read their favorite book and narrate its extract in the class the next day. The students eagerly and enthusiastically took part in this activity. In this way in a short time staff members and students benefitted from a large number of books.

Tree Plantation Campaign

Al-Huda Islamabad, staff members and students of Taleem ul Qur'an 4 initiated a four days tree planting campaign. The purpose of this activity was to reflect over the creation of Allah and to seek basic knowledge and firsthand experience of planting. For this campaign apart from evergreen plants, fruit plants were also selected. They were then planted beautifully in the compound of Islamabad Institute. Senior staff members and students of other courses greatly appreciated and showed interest in this activity.

In loving memory of Bilquis Begam...

Al-Huda Karachi Gulshan Branch first batch student Bilquis Begam passed away. 'To Allah we belong and to Him will be our return'. After listening to the tafseer of An Nisa by Respected Dr. Farhat Hashmi on FM radio she formally took admission in Al-Huda. The eye sight from one of her eyes was gone while she could barely see from her other eye, apart from her other illnesses. But in spite of all these issues she would attend the classes regularly and also give the Juz tests. She would take active part in all the activities done in the Branch. In order to help the Earth Quake victims in 2005 she herself stitched beddings for them. She would actively take part in various activities in the Branch, like taking care of water supply, phone installation, arrangement of making shade for the students in the compound. For the construction of Al-Huda Nazimabad Branch, she gifted her whole year's pension of about one lakh Rupees. She learned Al-Baqara by heart and would always be in the quest for more knowledge. She would initiate welfare work. Once travelers were facing difficulties due to floods, so she herself went to the station with crates of fruits and distributed them. Once she saw a homeless old woman crying in front of Edhi Center so she took her home and let her stay with her for some months. She would greatly respect her teachers and would attend the lectures of Respected Dr. Farhat Hashmi enthusiastically. In spite of her personal issues and deteriorating health, she had good assumption with Allah and was very cheerful person who treated people with sincerity. Our dear sister's face was looking fresh and serene after she was given her final bath. May Allah forgive her and make her abode in Jannatul Firdaus and make all her good deeds a means of continued charity for her. Ameen.

(Rubina Jabeen)

Abu Huraira رضي الله عنه reported Allah's Messenger صلى الله عليه وسلم as saying: "He who called (people) to righteousness, there would be reward (assured) for him like the rewards of those who adhered to it, without their rewards being diminished in any respect..."
